... ten years ago, Bucks County author Mary Shafer released her book, Devastations on the Delaware: Stories and Images of the Deadly Flood of 1955. Post-Katrina, the entire first printing sold out in just 42 days. A revised second edition was released in 2010, and 6,500 copies later, the title is still going strong. The author launched the third and final edition of her book on August 19—the 60th anniversary of the flood in Bucks County—as a special event hosted by the Nurture Nature Center in Easton. The treatment covers both sides of the river from Port Jervis/Matamoras/Montague to Trenton/Morrisville. It provides detailed historical, cultural and meteorological context for this tragic weather disaster that changed life in the Delaware Valley forever. The book has received multiple publishing industry awards and is available at 55Flood.com, the Doylestown Book Shop, Farley's in New Hope, The Book Garden in Frenchtown, and through Amazon.com in print and eBook format.
